HISTORY:

Mark's family and friends created the MJMJ in his memory in the months following his tragic death. Mark was lost on September 11th, 2001 in the World Trade Center attacks. Mark spent much of his life in Cheshire and had been a member of the Cheshire High School track and cross country teams. He continued to be an avid runner as an adult. Mark's family and friends knew that a running event that would bring people together for a few laughs would be a perfect tribute to him. Although Mark had followed his career to New York, he often returned to Cheshire to visit with his parents. Mark's mother remains a long time resident in town.
